Young George said:
"Remember, it's your campaign, its success depends upon the groundwork done by the people who want him to come to New York—not 'Billy' Sunday, a poor human agent of Christ. We are not coming expecting to evangelize New York. Indeed, we are coming in fear, in trembling, even though we come as God's ambassadors."

He suddenly stopped and changed

The schoolboys made a raft and charged 5 cents a trip across the flooded street. Toward 6 P. M. they did a rushing business.

Several large automobiles were stalled in the slush, but an employee took out a small auto from an Alexander Campbell milk delivery station opposite the school and hauled out the big machines.

A four-year-old child which fell into a hole nearly three feet deep was rescued by a school teacher.

Residents of the neighborhood blame the County Administration, which let a contract for a sewer on the street last summer, but has done nothing since the contracting company went bankrupt.
